INVEST IN FUTURE LIS LEADERS

Sponsorship Opportunities Now Available for the 2025 ALISE Leadership Development Internship Program.

WHAT IS IT ALL ABOUT?

The ALISE Leadership Development Internship Program is designed to identify individuals with the significant potential to provide future leadership for ALISE and in the broader field of library and information science. The program is open to current graduate students, postdocs, and early career professionals up to third year post-degree. The application process places a heavy emphasis on past and current leadership experiences with a specific focus on personal goals for growth within ALISE and the professional field.

At the ALISE annual conference, all interns are expected to participate fully in a coordinated program of activities, including leadership development sessions, exclusive events with leaders from the association and the field, and selected association governance events.
