

iBlackCaucus

THE BLACK CAUCUS OF THE AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Spring 2024 Events

SIGN-UP FOR STUDENT EVENTS AT BREAKINGBARRIERS.BCALA.ORG OR TINYURL.COM/IBCSRING2024

'Real Talk' Session

Does "Blacktivist" Librarianship Exist?

Take part in a grad student-led discussion on lessons learned from historic Black activist librarianship

Moderated by Malika Desire, iBlackCaucus Fellow

Wed., April 10

2pm EST

11am PST

Study Hours

Monthly 2-Hour Guided Study Sessions

iBlackCaucus is a virtual, national organization that unites and supports Black/African American LIS graduate students. Join us!

SATURDAYS

Jan 27

March 23

6:30pm-8:30pm EST

3:30pm-5:30pm PST

SUNDAYS

Feb 18

April 21

3-5pm EST

12-2pm PST

iBlackCaucus Speaker Series

Courage is Contagious: Celebrating Black History Month amid Anti-Black Racist Propaganda

Wed., February 21

2-3p EST/ 11am-12pm PST

Nichelle M. Hayes, BCALA President

Malika Desire, iBlackCaucus Fellow MLIS Student

Sophia Sotilleo, Freedom to Read Foundation/ Bowie State University

Dr. Emily Knox, University of Illinois-Urbana Champaign

Open to all BCALA members

Register at <http://tinyurl.com/SpringiBCTalk>

FACEBOOK: @BLACKCAUCUSALA
INSTAGRAM: @BC_ALA

EMAIL: IBLACKCAUCUS@BCALA.ORG
WEBSITE: BCALA.ORG

#BCALAProud