ABOUT ALISE

ALISE (Association for Library and Information Science Education) is a non-profit organization that serves as the intellectual home of university faculty in graduate programs in library and information science in North America. Its mission is to promote innovation and excellence in research, teaching, and service for educators and scholars in Library and Information Science and cognate disciplines internationally through leadership, collaboration, advocacy, and dissemination of research.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

*WESTIN WESTMINSTER HOTEL
10600 Westminster Boulevard
Westminster, Colorado 80020*

AUDIENCE PROFILE:

ALISE members are primarily university faculty, administrators, and students. They teach in a wide range of areas, from serving children in libraries to corporate database management. They need tools and services to support their teaching and research, as well as tools to streamline the academic workflow.

- ALISE has members from around the globe.
- Our members are well-educated and tech-savvy professionals—leaders in the library and information science education profession.
- They rely on ALISE to keep up with professional trends, maintain professional contacts, and help make purchasing decisions.
- Our members not only make purchasing decisions for their own universities, but they touch every librarian that enters the work force, thus influencing their vendor knowledge.
- From deans to faculty, administrators to doctoral students, your message will reach select, qualified library and information science educators.
- 70% female, 30% male
